

Michael Berman
Chief Operating Officer
Outside Ventures, LLC

Michael Berman is Chief Operating Officer (COO) for Outside Ventures, LLC (OVL), a New York-based investment and management company. He is responsible for the daily operations and strategic planning for all the subsidiary companies under OVL's umbrella, including Tribul Merchant Services LLC, which provides point-of-sale credit card processing and e-commerce solutions to regional and middle market merchants throughout the United States.

Berman has a proven track record of generating rapid, significant, and sustained results as a senior executive across a range of B2B service sectors. Prior to joining Outside Ventures, Mike was the COO for Meridian Capital Group, where he oversaw the day-to-day operations and strategic planning for one of the nation's largest and fastest-growing commercial mortgage brokerages.

Before his position at Meridian Capital Group, Berman was CEO and managing partner of Rogen North America, an executive training and consulting group, after Rogen acquired Cpath Solutions, which he cofounded. Cpath was a venture management firm that specialized in providing high-impact services to small to mid-sized companies in the various stages of their business lifecycle, including the launch, improvement phase, or post-merger.

Berman has also successfully executed several turnarounds of companies in the staffing, logistics, warehousing, and Internet commerce industries.

He received his MBA from the University of New Haven and an undergraduate degree from Allegheny College (PA).

Berman currently resides in Connecticut with his wife Elyse and two children.